Ages 6-8

Reading, Discussing, Crafting, and Writing about Literature

Hosted by Michelle Syverson, current Pacific Elementary TK teacher and 30-year staff member in MBUSD with a passion for literacy and literature. Extensive training, education, and experience with English Language Arts curriculum and instruction. Experience in teaching Pre-K, TK, K, first and fifth-grade, District Literacy Specialist (2017-2021), Elementary Support Specialist, Reading Intervention Teacher, and Elementary Assistant Principal.

This camp is for lower-grade elementary students. Each session will cover different pieces of literature, for those interested in more than one session. Camps are always more fun with a friend, share this opportunity with them!

Sessions Outline:

- Listen to 1-2 read-alouds each day.
- Learn the author's story and background.
- Engage in conversation about what was read.
- Create a literature response through writing, drawing, and crafting.
- Opportunity to write stories.

Sessions are 4 days - 2 hours, 8-12 participants. A minimum of 8 needed.

$375 per participant - Fee covers room rental (district), liability insurance, materials, and preparation cost. A minimum of 8 participants needed for each session. Sessions with low participation/interest will be cancelled.

Session 1 – July 14-17 (M- Th) 9:00-11:00am

Session 2 – July 21-24 (M-Th) 1:00-3:00pm

Location TBD (one of the elementary sites in MBUSD).
